Chicago Tribune.

VOL. XIX. CHICAGO, MONDAY, APRIL 2, 1866. NUMBER 302.

NEW JERSEY SENATORSHIP.

An Election to Take place on Wednesday.

REPUBLICANS CERTAIN OF SUCCESS.

Riot in Charleston, S. C.—The British Consul Injured.

A BILL RELATIVE TO THE RIGHTS OF NATIONAL CITIZENSHIP.

Trial of Another Andersonville Murderer.

A State Dinner to Madame Juarez.

FUNERAL OF SENATOR FOOT AT RUTLAND.

TENNESSEE ELECTIONS.—THE BOLTERS SUCCESSFUL.

FROM WASHINGTON.

[Special Despatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, April 1.

ONE COMING IN NEW JERSEY.

Private letters and telegrams from New Jersey say the Senatorial contest will be settled on Wednesday, without doubt, in the election of an outand out Republican.

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.

The civil rights bill is the order of the day for to-morrow, in the Senate. Four Senators who went north with the body of Mr. Foot, will be absent till Wednesday, and it is probable, therefore, that the measure will not be taken up till then. It is known that any one among the friends of freedom will speak—except Judge Trumbull. Gentlemen on the opposite side announce a desire to be heard, but have not yet fully decided to do so. Mr. Doolittle's friends say that the passage of the constitutional restriction by his State will necessitate a speech from him.

AMENDED INTERNAL REVENUE BILL.

It is probable that the Ways and Means Committee will report the amended internal revenue bill this week, and perhaps as early as Wednesday.

THE RIGHTS OF NATIONAL CITIZENSHIP.

An important bill will define the rights of national citizenship under the first clause of the second section of the fourth article of the Constitution, and will be reported to the Senate to-day. Speaking of the salary, either McCune or Lloyd picked up Leonidas's salary, and the other got the Senatorial stomach, which will prove fatal, as may also Mc-Cune's wounds.

On Saturday night, Edward Purcell, while on a spree, got into a fight with a negro on the corner of Hacking Pike, north of the city, which resulted in his receiving a pistol shot from one of the two, from which he died on Sunday morning. No arrest has been made, and no clue to their identity has been discovered.

FROM AMBOY.

Dedication of a Church—Handsome Contribution.

[Special Despatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

AMBOY, Ill., April 1.

The new M. E. Church in this city was dedicated to-day by Rev. Dr. Kynett, of Chicago, conducting the services. Six thousand dollars were raised. This amount pays the balance due on the church, and leaves a surplus of seven hundred dollars. The number of the church was thirteen thousand dollars, everything paved off pleasantly.

FROM RUTLAND, VT.

The Funeral of Senator Foot—Remarks of Senator Doolittle—Touching Incidents.

RUTLAND, Vt., April 1.—The remains of the late Senator Foot reached here yesterday evening, in charge of Senator Doolittle, Governor Smith, and other gentlemen. A committee from the Legislature met the cars at the depot, and escorted the remains to the Court House, where they were placed in the east room, and were open to the public. Hundreds availed themselves of the opportunity to look upon the features of the deceased statesman. As the bereaved friend lay in state, learned people from seven miles in the vicinity of the Senate. His last movements are thus recorded in the Senate Chamber, by Senator Doolittle, he said: "Dear brother, you have always been kind to me; always true to me; always true to the country, but you know where your reward lies." I could not speak. He then said: "Brother, I have a request to make: The many of God are been very great to me in this sickness. I have no many friends, and many especially among the sisters, all around me. It seems to thrill a country heart to think I shall leave them. I am failing rapidly. Then, after a pause, he said, "I have been trying to make my peace with God before upon earth whom I have intentionally wronged or offended, and I hope that God will forgive me. I will not attempt to tell you all he said. Before I left, he said, "Brother, I shall see you again in the morning." I replied, "I will, if the same Power which has brought me to this point will permit me to do so." He replied, "I will be there." Before I could leave the room, he said, "Brother, I shall be there." Before I could leave the room, he said, "Brother, I shall be there." Before I could leave the room, he said, "Brother, I shall be there."

The funeral services were held in the Congregational Church, at 11 o'clock this morning, and were attended by a large concourse of people. Governor Smith, Senator Doolittle, Governor Fenton, and other distinguished gentlemen were present. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Kynett, of Chicago, assisted by Rev. Mr. Hall, of Rutland. Senator Doolittle delivered a touching address, in which he paid a glowing tribute to the character of the deceased statesman. The remains will be taken to Middlebury for interment.

FROM GEORGIA.

Removal of Colored Troops—Riot in Charleston—The Trial of Duncan—Another Outrage in Georgia—Moore Pardoned—Crop Prospects—Jail Broken open to Allow Murderers of Negroes to Escape.

[Special Despatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

MACON, Ga., March 31.

The City Council of Macon passed a resolution last night requesting the removal of colored troops from that city; but as Gov. Johnson, who was here yesterday, has entered into correspondence with the President in reference to

Chicago Tribune.

Published every morning at 81 and 83 CLARK STREET, Nos. 81 and 83 CLARK STREET.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

The Daily Tribune, delivered in any part of the city, Sundays excepted, per year, $10.00
The Daily Tribune, delivered in any part of the city, Sundays excepted, per month, .80
The Sunday Tribune, per year, 2.00
The Weekly Tribune, per year, 2.00

Remittances should be made by Express Money Order, Draft, or Registered Letter. Address all letters and telegrams to "THE TRIBUNE," Chicago.

Specimen copies sent free.

Rejected communications cannot be returned under any circumstances.

Entered at the Post-Office at Chicago, Ill., as second-class matter.

CHICAGO, MONDAY, APRIL 2, 1866.

THE TARIFF ON WOOL.

We publish elsewhere a letter from Mr. Horace Greeley, which is worthy of the high character of that gentleman. It is a calm, dispassionate, and able statement of the views of a large class of the people of this country, and is entitled to the most careful consideration. Mr. Greeley's position is that of a wool-grower, who has always been in favor of a protective tariff, and who is now in favor of a protective tariff, but who thinks that the present tariff on wool is too high, and that it ought to be reduced. He is not in favor of free wool, but he does not believe that the present duty is necessary for the protection of the wool-growing interest. He thinks that the present duty is a tax upon the manufacturers, and that it ought to be reduced. He is not in favor of free wool, but he is in favor of a reduction of the present duty on wool

FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, March 21.

LETTER FROM GEN. GRANT.

It is understood that Gen. Grant, one of Ohio, a member of a very close personal friend of Gen. Sherman, while the latter had the Chief Signal Office under his charge, wrote a letter to Gen. Sherman, which

Chicago Tribune.
MONDAY, APRIL 9, 1866.

THE CITY.

Sharon Liquor Workers' License.—A meeting of the Sharon Liquor Workers' Association was held at the office of Mr. Hoyt, on Clark street, on Saturday evening, for the purpose of [illegible]

Chicago Agricultural Society.—An adjourned meeting of the Chicago Agricultural Society was held at the office of the Secretary, on Saturday evening, for the purpose of [illegible]

Young Farmers.—We yesterday had the pleasure of a call from this celebrated Prattsbottom-on-the-Jerry trotting descendant of the PRAIRIE FARMER of 1854. He's now a four-pronged fire either as a wit, and will mostly visit Chicago in his present [illegible]

Lake Tunnel.—The engineers of the lake tunnel has progressed to the distance of 1,700 feet from the shore end, and about 500 feet from the crib, and is a total of 2,207 feet, and leaving 4,113 feet yet to be dug. The tunnel is completed in width for the full length from the crib of the tunnel to the shore. The next is going forward as fast as the men can be supplied with [illegible]

The Fight of the Firemen.—On Saturday afternoon of the fireman's parade, which was to have been held on the 14th inst., and in the year 1858 A. D. 1858, in the year of our Lord 1858, and in the year of the world 1858, and in the year of the [illegible]

Fire in Oakland.—Yesterday morning, about 2 o'clock, a fire broke out in the house of Mr. Wm. Hoffman, on Oakland avenue, between Pearson and Oak streets, which was entirely consumed, with its contents. The fire was discovered by the inmates of the house, who were [illegible]

Fire in Oakland.—Yesterday morning, about 2 o'clock, a fire broke out in the house of Mr. Wm. Hoffman, on Oakland avenue, between Pearson and Oak streets, which was entirely consumed, with its contents. The fire was discovered by the inmates of the house, who were